New York, March 17, 2015—Cohen & Steers, Inc. (NYSE:CNS) announced that its president, Joseph M. Harvey, and chief financial officer, Matthew S. Stadler, are scheduled to speak at the Bank of America Merrill Lynch 2015 Smid Cap Conference in Boston, Massachusetts at 11:00 a.m. (ET) on Wednesday, March 18, 2015.

A live webcast of the presentation, which includes audio and slides from the conference, will be available on the company’s website at www.cohenandsteers.com under “Company/News and Press Releases.” A replay of the webcast will be available following the presentation for a period of two weeks. The presentation includes forward-looking information, which is subject to the cautionary statements included therein, and will include a discussion of non-GAAP pro forma financial measure items that, to the extent not so qualified during the presentation, are qualified by GAAP reconciliation information included in the presentation materials.

About Cohen & Steers

Founded in 1986, Cohen & Steers is a leading global investment manager with a long history of innovation and a focus on real assets, including real estate, infrastructure and commodities, along with preferred securities and other income solutions. Headquartered in New York City, with offices in London, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Seattle, Cohen & Steers serves institutional and individual investors around the world.